

13. The Mystery of Intercession

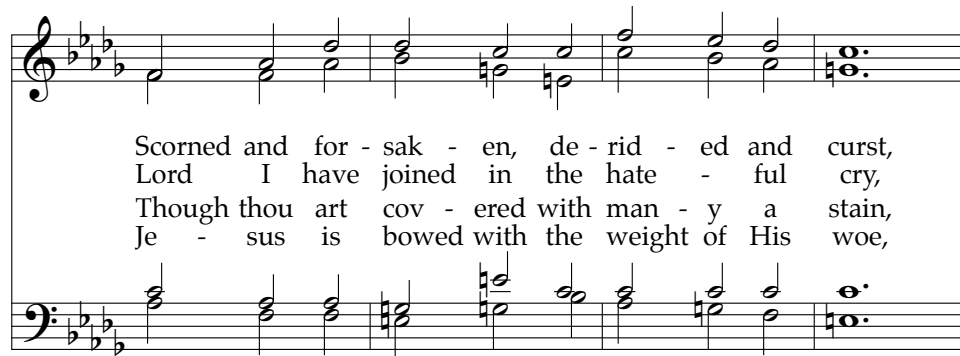

The Crucifixion

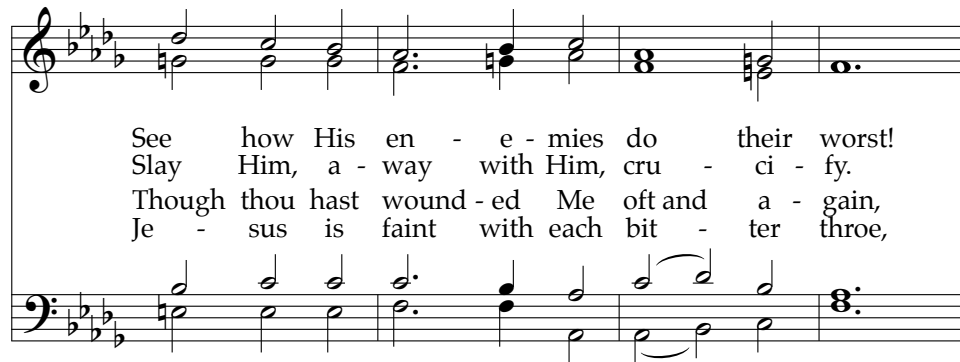

1. Je - sus, the Cru - ci - fied, pleads for me,
2. Lord, I have left Thee, I have de - nied.
3. Though thou hast left Me and wandered a - way,
4. Je - sus is dy - ing, in agon - y sore,

While He is nailed to the shame - ful tree,
Fol - lowed the world in my sel - fish pride;
Cho - sen the dark - ness instead of the day;
Je - sus is suf - fer - ing more and more,

Scorned and for - sak - en, de - rid - ed and curst,
Lord I have joined in the hate - ful cry,
Though thou art cov - ered with man - y a stain,
Je - sus is bowed with the weight of His woe,

See how His en - e - mies do their worst!
Slay Him, a - way with Him, cru - ci - fy.
Though thou hast wound - ed Me oft and a - gain,
Je - sus is faint with each bit - ter throe,

Yet, in the midst of the tor-ture and shame,
 Lord, I have done it, oh! ask me not how;
 Though thou hast fol-lowed thy way - ward will;
 Je - sus is bear-ing it all in my stead,

Je - sus, the Cru - ci - fied, breathes my name!
 Wov - en the thorns for Thy tor - tured Brow!
 Yet, in My pit - y, I love thee still.
 Pit - y In - car - nate for me has bled;

Unison

Won - der of Won - ders, oh! how can it be?
 Yet in His pit - y so bound - less and free,
 Won - der of won - ders it ev - er must be!
 Won - der of won - ders it ev - er must be!

Harmony

Je - sus, the Cru - ci - fied, pleads for me!
 Je - sus, the Cru - ci - fied, pleads for me!
 Je - sus, the Cru - ci - fied, pleads for me.
 Je - sus, the Cru - ci - fied, pleads for me.
